DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 08 December 2005 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 32-33 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japanese Patent Specification No. 58-103565.

The abstract teaches an electrically conductive paint comprising silver-beryllium-copper type conductive powder having a particle size of from 0.05 and 10 microns which is dipped in an organic solvent solution of 1,2,3-benzotriazole to form a film of a chelate compound. The powder is then incorporated into a thermosetting resin and a solvent to produce a paint. The examiner has requested a formal translation of this document which will be forwarded to applicant's upon receipt.

Art Unit: 1755

The instant claims are met by the reference. It is the position of the examiner that the thermosetting resin meets applicants heat transfer medium absent evidence showing otherwise.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 27-41 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 31-47 of copending Application No. 10/603,332. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the reduction to practice of the claims of the copending application would render obvious the instant claims.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

The instant claims are encompassed by the claims of the copending application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 27, 32, 35, 36 and 39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 27 the phrase "short-chain acids" is vague and indefinite as the term "short" is a relative term which renders the claim indefinite. The term "short" is not defined by the claim, the specification does not provide a standard for ascertaining the requisite degree, and one of ordinary skill in the art would not be reasonably apprised of the scope of the invention.

Claim 32 contains improper Markush terminology as the phrase "selected from the group of" should be -- selected from the group consisting of --.

Claim 35 contains improper Markush terminology due to the use of "and/or". Also the preamble of the claim recites "the azole is selected from the group....a pentane-soluble amide, a pyridine-based compound, a pentane-soluble dispersant, and a solvent" however the last 4 members of the group are not "azoles".

Claim 36 contains improper Markush terminology as the phrase "selected from the group of" should be -- selected from the group consisting of --.

Art Unit: 1755

In claim 39 the Markush listing is confusing as it recites "and alloys thereof" however steel is an alloy.
